My perception is that artificial turf is desirable by some because it is "maintenance free"; however, for some people that will become no maintenance ever, thereby creating a real eye sore. Additionally, allowing this is just going to create the need for more municipal oversight and expense for tax payers.

Should artificial turf be approved through the Variance Process, which is reviewed on a case-by-case basis by the Planning and Zoning board?

Select One Strongly Disagree

Q7

Do you have concerns or reservations about allowing artificial turf on individual residential lots? If so, please explain.

(no label)

If so, please explain.:

Strongly Agree

My neighbors have artificial grass in their back yard. They have two large dogs that use it to go potty on and the ground doesn't absorb it like traditional grass so I get the pleasure of smelling it all day.

---

Q8

Would you consider alternative options for residential landscaping different from artificial turfs, such as Florida Friendly Landscaping?

Never knew it wasn't allowed, but considered it for our back yard. Doesn't make much sense to disallow it as long as it looks good and is kept up. In most cases it would look better than 70% of the yards in the city that don't maintain them. It's worked/looks great for CCA, so why not?

Impacts enviroment: creates breeding ground for cockroaches, inhibits birds from eating bugs/grubs/and the like. Does not allow soil underneath to gain nutrients it needs for sustainabiity, trees, etc... The turf will act as a solarization blanket killing the 'good' bugs and organisms for healthy soil. Turf gets worn and can look like a used old carpet with patches of wear - this is not a good look for neighborhood and market

There are different grades of turf and most will not take the florida sun and rain very well - overtime, it will look ratty, worn, patchy - I cannot see neighbors spending the money to keep turf replaced so it looks good.

If so, please explain.:

Strongly Agree

Artificial turf is just that...Artificial. It is composed of toxic chemicals, which over time leach into our environment. We already have so many pollutants in our soils and lakes. Allowing artificial turf will exponentially increase the toxic load of our environment. It is NOT a good idea.

Environmental impacts, drainage, unsightly (plastic and fake looking), How will it stand up to hurricane winds and torrential rains, rain runoff affects neighbors, Does not absorb CO2 emissions and cannot produce oxygen, it must harbor bacteria when dogs/animals poop and pee on it...ugh. This is not being good stewards of our environment. Our increased emissions associated with more people living here and driving and then putting in artificial turf that cannot help mitigate the emissions effects and may even make it worse. Water filtration before it gets to the lakes would not happen on a plastic turf with hard compacted soil that does not absorb rain. Therefore, all the chemicals will go directly into the lake. How does the AT hold up to the sun and when it breaks down, will it put harmful chemicals into the lakes, atmosphere, and soil? It is made of plastic, some of which are known carcinogens and others may be found out to be at a later date. Natural turf is not cancerous and will not create gases that are harmful. Those with AT will be blaming you when the next hurricane comes and they flood because the water did not drain. This really cannot be a good idea. It is as bad as letting someone concrete their yard. You let one person then everyone will want to do it because of low maintenance and it stays green. Think of the problems when a whole neighborhood goes that direction.

My concerns are the same as the above comment....ugly and fake looking and will look horrible butted up next to God-made plants and landscaping, lack of proper drainage, impacts to the environment. It really is not environmentally friendly at all.....man-made vs God-made. Hardly a comparison. Definitely not in residential neighborhoods.

If so, please explain.:

Strongly Agree

There are several environmental concerns associated with artificial turf including loss of wildlife habitat, contaminated runoff and migration of synthetic materials. Contaminants that are harmful to aquatic life, such as zinc, have been found in storm water runoff from artificial turf. Because natural materials such as grass absorb carbon dioxide during photosynthesis, replacing them with artificial grass also directly contributes to the increase of carbon dioxide (a primary greenhouse gas) in the atmosphere.

Neutral / Neither Agree Nor Disagree

Ive seen artificial turf used in many areas around town and good quality well maintained turfs look very nice and require no water. I feel that front lawns should stay natural; however, not focus area, areas with little sunlight and backyard oasis's should be up to the property owner to determine the right type of permeable alternatives if grass would impose a challenge or they would like to converse water.

Belle Isle is an ecological paradise where humans, homes, and wildlife thrive because of our landscapes and lakes. Artificial turf can disrupt our local ecology which manages to thrive despite heavy development.

Select One

List your concerns for the neighborhood.:

Strongly Agree

Absolutely! Artificial turf is HOT. The staff report said the heat can be mitigated...that citation is from the UK, not Florida. Here is a video from UF showing artificial turf reaching 150 degrees F on an average Summer day. The unintended consequences are massive. I have had artificial turf in a shady area in a former home. It is smelly. Just gross!

There is no section to elaborate on support of artificial turf, so I will use this portion of the survey. While artificial turf is not the optimal selection in all landscape instances, there are many scenarios where it is the superlative choice (ie: low light or covered areas, as an option to other hardscape materials for foot traffic areas, pool decks, patio extensions, etc). Also, please note that question 8 is not exclusive of artificial turf... Florida Friendly plant selections can be complimented with the use of artificial turf.

Artificial turf materials are similar to other landscape hardscape and ground cover selections. When installed correctly, with reasonable design and well maintained, it can be a true enhancement to our community.

While artificial turf may look ok when it is first installed, it will deteriorate over time. It is a relatively impervious surface which will result in an increase in runoff and flooding on neighboring properties, the lakes and roads. Depending on the product it can actually increase temps. It may save on fertilizer run-off into the lakes, but it creates other environmental problems.

Run Off, drive nature to other communities, "set it and forget it" mentality - just because it is fake doesn't mean it doesn't need maintenance. If we are the city of trees, does this even remotely make sense?

Look it's well documented that lawns are an environmental disaster. We want the "natural " look but lawn if we're honest isn't natural and in a lake community is something of a disaster. Native options are typically best but are not in line with our cultural expectations of middle and upper class America. The real question is what impact does artificial grass have on the environment esp our local ecosystem and I don't think enough information is presented in this survey nor do the general lay public know enough to make a truly informed decision to guide policy.

You have to show environmental impacts in a survey like this....you can't just say hey do you like this or like that. Lawns aren't good....but is artificial better....your asking for a purely aesthetic consideration in an area with real environment consequences.
